June 2nd, 2020 - the story starts with henry winstanley s ludicrously decorative first lighthouse at eddystone 1698 built of timber with an external stair wrapping around it looked more like a helter skelter in a fairground than a fortress to face the worse tempers of the sea'

'eddystone lighthouse

June 1st, 2020 - winstanley s lighthouse as modified in 1699 the first lighthouse on eddystone rocks was an octagonal wooden structure built by henry winstanley the lighthouse was also the first recorded instance of an offshore lighthouse construction started in 1696 and the light was lit on 14 november
